Raptivity to exhibit at The Digital Education Show Asia 2014

The Raptivity team will be exhibiting at The Digital Education Show Asia 2014 being held at Exhibition Halls 1 & 2, Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre (KLCC) Malaysia, from May 27-28, 2014. Raptivity will be represented by its channel partner eLearning Minds, Malaysia at the event. Raptivity will be exhibiting at booth #64.

Visitors to the booth will get to look at Raptivity Linker. Raptivity Linker is a new solution from team Raptivity and allows users to thread together stand-alone Raptivity interactions and use them as a unified block. It is aimed at enabling learning-arcs to be built from Raptivity, to provide unified learning experiences that deliver a higher level of interactivity and learning. Besides Raptivity Linker, visitors to the Raptivity booth will also get a chance to see some enhancements in Raptivity, such as the suite of HTML5 interactions and the improved User Interface.

The Digital Education Show Asia 2014 is o-organized by Terrapinn and MDeC, and supported by the Ministry of Education Malaysia. Shравan Kadvekar, General Manager - Product Sales, Harbinger Knowledge Products seemed quite excited for Raptivity participation in the event and mentioned, "I am glad that Raptivity would exhibit at this event. Since it is Asia's most important digital education event, we plan to showcase our most significant eLearning offerings here – The simplified Raptivity and Raptivity Linker, a unique solution that is bound to change the way we think of interactive learning today. I encourage attendees to stop by the booth and have a look at both the products and share their comments."
